

DOCUMENT NO. 804 Rev A:
AIRCRAFT MODEL DESIGNATION CHANGE
FOR EVAS MODELS 107STC

Effectivity:

- (1) EVAS Models 107STC (All STC Approved EVAS Models)
- (2) Effective Date – January 10, 2008

Description

This notification is for all existing customers/operators of any EVAS models with STC approval. Such models are delineated as 107STC. Beginning January 10, 2008, new EVAS units will no longer be engraved with the aircraft model name(s) for which the EVAS model is certified. Instead, the engraving will reference the EVAS Model Eligibility List. The list, sorted by EVAS Model Number and by Aircraft Model Name, can be found on the Certification Page of our website, www.visionsafe.com. A copy of the list for STC models, sorted in EVAS model number order, will be enclosed with each new and serviced unit.

At the time of the 120 month overhaul, any unit engraved with the aircraft model name will be re-engraved with the eligibility statement.

Effect to existing EVAS Customers/Operators

With the exception of EVAS units listed in this section, there will be no effect to customers with existing EVAS units.

Exceptions:

Due to previous changes with EVAS model numbering, some EVAS models applicable to Gulfstream and Bombardier aircraft will automatically be re-engraved when returned for service. These models will be re-engraved to reflect the current EVAS model number and the eligibility statement.

Gulfstream EVAS Models: 107STC-049-X or -050-X; where -X represents any of the following: -G-1159CSP; -G-V. To be engraved with EVAS model: 107STC-049 and 107STC-050.

Bombardier EVAS Models: 107STC-119-X or 107STC-120-X; where -X represents any of the following: -CL600; -CL-600-2B16; -CL601; -CL6013A; -CL6013R; -CL604; -CL604-3A. To be engraved with EVAS model: 107STC-119 and 107STC-120.
